GERMAN REPLY SATISFIES; BIG LOAN IS NEXT

Expect Great Banks to Furnish Money.

PARIS, May 29.—The German acceptance of the demands of the reparations commission for the reform of German finances was received by the reparations commission this afternoon.

The note consists of six typed pages and an annex of eight pages. In German with a French translation. The reparations commission spent six hours studying it.

The German note is satisfactory as a whole and will certainly sidetrack the crisis.

The Berlin government assumes that the international committee will be forced to accept the conditions for accepting the demands for financial reform.

Hedges on Paper Money.

Germany is banking on a part of international loan for cash reparations of $70,000,000 gold marks ($2,000,000,000) for the remainder of the year, which to print sufficient paper to cover the payments if the loan fails or is not floated quickly.

The German promises for financial reform are in the hands of the commission and will be cleared for the international committee to begin the work of preparing an international loan to Germany.

The question who will buy $1,000,000 worth of German bonds, guaranteed only by German faith, is one of the most problems in connection with the loan.

Banks Will Support Loan.

Why should the small American investor buy these bonds that will certainly not pay more than 6 or 7 per cent? The Tribune was asked by an influential banker today.

We do not think they will draw speculative money nor be more advantageous for small American, British and Dutch investors.

The great banks and business enterprises of Europe and America will strongly support the loan, however, because they realize the necessity of stimulating international trade.

Mark Starts Upward.

These banks will be able to influence many of their customers to invest in such a loan, as well as investing themselves, and the effect will be felt in general prosperity.

The loan will be based on German gold marks and the rates of conversion of the present paper currencies of Europe will be another puzzling problem.

The mark touched 4 centimes on the Paris bourse today, the highest point in several months.

BERLIN, May 29.—Chancellor Wirth declared the reichstag this afternoon on Germany's decision to accept the reparations commission's demand for a loan of $1,000,000,000 to be granted by the reparations commission.

Wirth, the French politician, who advocates invasion of the Ruhr, declaring European peace is impossible so long as Germany is continually threatened by force.

Yesterday's session of the foreign affairs committee was the most violent in its history and at one point fist fights were threatened. Hugo Stinnes, the multimillionaire politician, declared the German foreign policy had ceased to exist through fear of the entente. He said it did not matter if the French invaded the Ruhr.

Industry Schmidt announced that an invasion would be a catastrophe to every one except big business men, such as Herr Stinnes. Herr Dittman, an independent Socialist, charged that a French army in the Ruhr would behave as well as the Germans in Belgium. To this Herr Schmidt, leader of the Pan-Germans, replied: "You are supporting the French."

This brought in Herr Breitscheid, the Independent Socialist leader, who shouted: "You weren't in the trenches, you slacker."

Herr Helfferich pushed over, shouting: "I'll punch your jaw."

Herr Breitscheid waved his aside contemptuously. "Consider your face," retorted Herr Helfferich. "It looks like a neutral to separate these two leaders."

MRS. McCORMICK ACTS TO BLOCK WEDDING PLAN

Declares Husband Not Legal Guardian.

Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, yesterday started a legal battle in the Probate court, the aim of which it is said is to block the marriage of her daughter, Mathilde, to Max Oser, Swiss horseman.

At the same time Miss Mathilde, her father, Harold McCormick, and her Swiss friend, Julia Manrold, were registered at the Plaza in New York. And at 9 o'clock last night reports came that Mathilde would not sail for Europe this morning on the Cunard liner Berengaria. At 10 o'clock New York reported that she would sail with her friend Julia, who is former secretary to Max Oser. But at midnight indications were again said to be that she wouldn't sail. Anyhow, Miss Manrold is to sail. Mathilde's name, it is said, is not on the passenger list.

Mrs. McCormick to Fight.

Mrs. McCormick went Saturday, it was learned late yesterday afternoon, into the probate court before Judge Henry Horner with a demand that the proceedings through which Mr. McCormick was appointed Mathilde's legal guardian, be reopened. Former Judge Charles S. Cutting, counsel for Mrs. McCormick, represented she had not been legally notified of the proceedings and that therefore the appointment of Mr. McCormick could not stand.

Mrs. McCormick was not served with notice until Saturday morning, according to Attorney Cutting. She did not get the three days' notice of the proceedings as required under the rules of the Probate court.

Judge Horner, however, stated this was merely a technicality and set Wednesday morning as the time for a hearing, at which both sides may appear in court with arguments. He stated the lack of notice in advance was merely an oversight on the part of Assistant Judge Corkeil, who approved the guardianship of Mr. McCormick, and the attorney for the millionaire head of the International Harvester company.

Hearing May Be Distant.

"Mrs. McCormick has been given proper notice," said Judge Horner. "On Wednesday morning we shall see whether she objects to the appointment of Mr. McCormick as Mathilde's guardian. Should she object, I will set the matter for hearing on some future date."

"Judge Cutting came to me Saturday morning, after the hearing of the case, and informed me that his client had not been notified. I called in Attorney Edwin H. Cassels, who acted for Mr. McCormick, and instructed him to serve the proper notice."

But Judge Cutting expressed the conviction that Mathilde is not the ward of her father by reason of last Friday's proceedings.

"Not Legal Guardian."

"No order of record has been entered in the Probate court," he said, "and Mr. McCormick is not the legal guardian of Mathilde. When I informed Judge Horner my client had not been notified, he stopped the order and it never was entered, though the attempt to enter it was made."

"Since Mrs. McCormick was not notified, Mr. Corkeil had no power to authorize the order making Harold F. McCormick his daughter's guardian."

Attorney Cutting admitted having discussed the proceedings at length with Mrs. McCormick, after the matter became public following strenuous efforts by McCormick's attorneys to keep it secret. He was asked whether Mrs. McCormick will contest the appointment.

She's Not Satisfied.

"I cannot answer that for Mrs. McCormick," he said. "I can only say she is not satisfied with the way things were done."

Attorney Cassels would not discuss the case; he merely admitted it had been reopened.

"Will Mrs. McCormick be in court Wednesday morning?" he was asked.

"She may and she may not," the lawyer replied. "She will be represented, of course."

A telephone to Mr. McCormick's residence early in the evening elicited a response from a woman who said she would "rather not" state her identity.

"Yes," she said; "Mr. McCormick knows of Mrs. McCormick's action. But he will not discuss it and has left orders for none of us to talk of it."

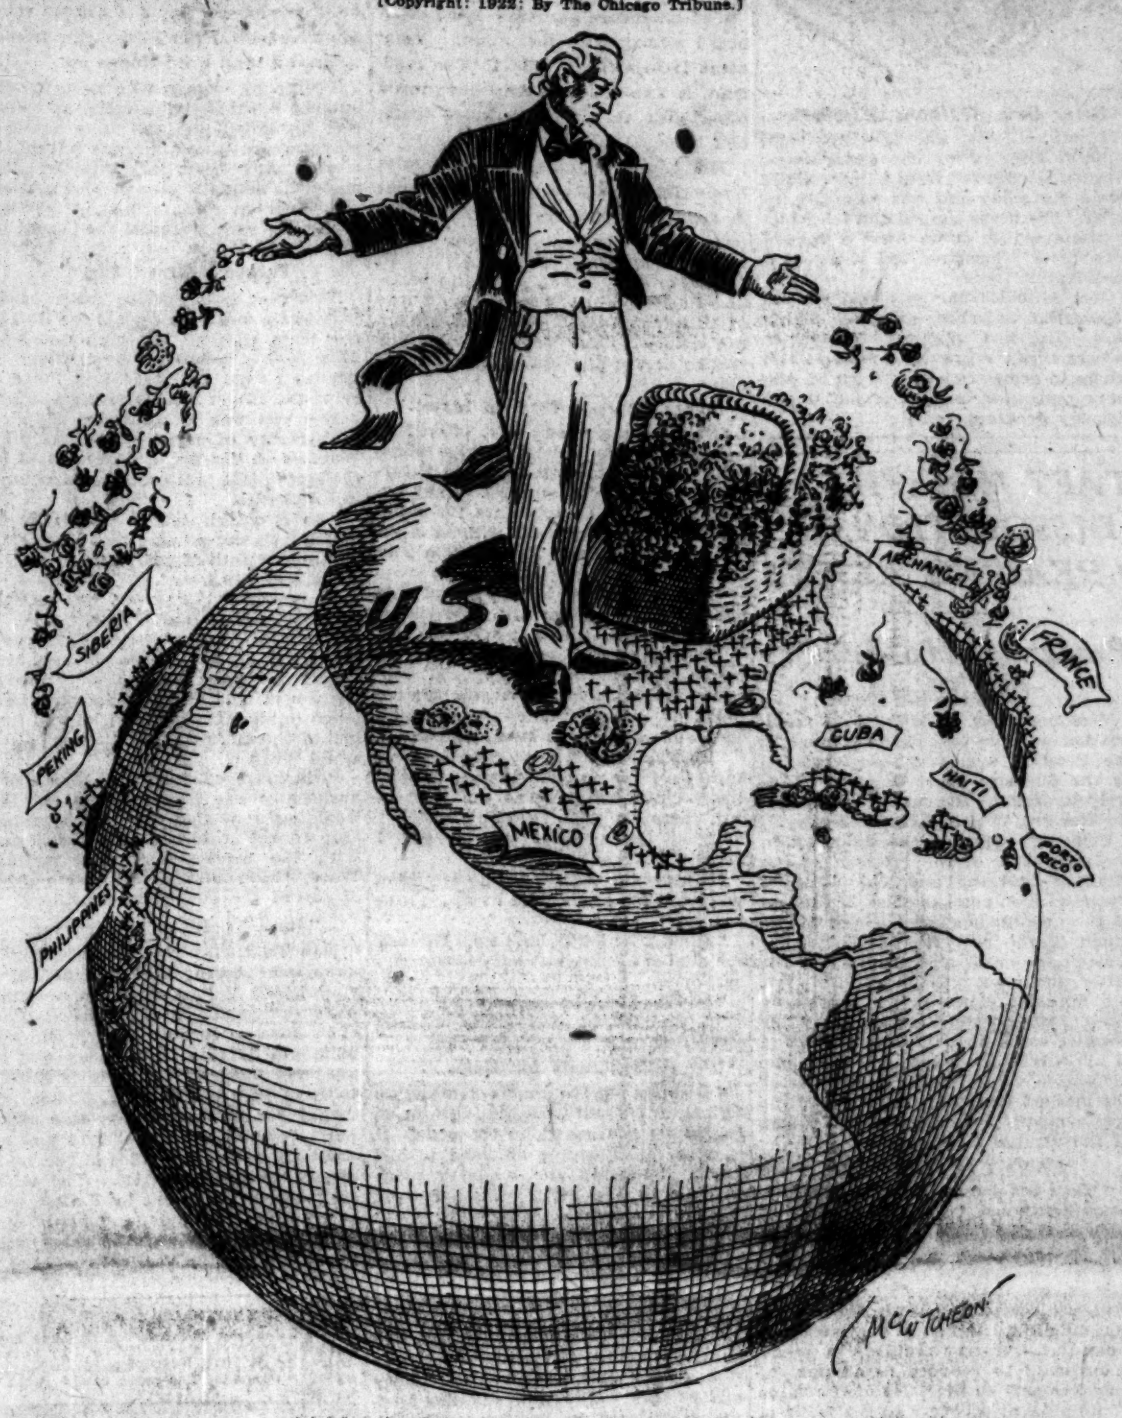

While it was reported in New York yesterday that Mathilde would sail on the Berengaria for France today to be married in Switzerland, her Swiss boy in his efforts to talk, he will be taken up more than 5,000 feet.

HUMBLE PEASANTS OF FRANCE TO DECK YANK GRAVES TODAY

PARIS, May 29.—Wherever Americans lie who died for freedom on the torn soil of France and from the Orkneys to the tip of Italy—loving comrades and distinguished spokesmen from the homeland will journey tomorrow, as is America's custom on Memorial day, to keep ever tender and green the memory of patriots.

The French peasants who lived with the doughboys and loved them have made the day a fête of their own and will carry humble blossoms to heap on the American graves.

The great majority of martyred Americans rest in American national cemeteries centered in the great American battlefields.

Leaders Pay Tribute.

The adjutant general of the army, the American ambassador to France, the general who led the 28 division at Belleau Wood, the great French marshal who hurled back the German invasion on the Marne, a major who helped the Americans in Flanders crush the Hindenburg line, will brush shoulders with former privates of the American and French armies in paying homage to the greatest soldier of them all—the soldier who laid down his life for his country.

As has been its custom since the armistice, France will pay tribute of flowers to the man who fought so valiantly with its own people.

No American grave will go tomorrow without its American flag and its flowers. Messages may be given the gold star mothers of America that their sons' graves have been heaped with tokens of a grateful country's love.

MARILYNN WILL MAKE JACK WAIT

Ziegfeld's Anvil Chorus Proves Effective.

New York, May 29.—[Special.]—Marilynn Miller's engagement to Jack Pickford is not at all at the liking of Florenz Ziegfeld Jr., who has a strong interest in Miss Miller's affairs so long as she remains the star in "Sally," now playing in Boston.

Having heard that Miss Miller had announced her engagement in Boston, he called her to New York Sunday and gave her a piece of his mind. She went back and told reporters that while the engagement still stood, the wedding would be "a long time off."

"I did not attempt to tell Miss Miller whom or when she should marry," the husband of Billy Burke was careful to point out.

"But I certainly do not like the idea of her marrying Pickford, or any one else who virtually betrayed her country's trust during the world war."

Says Pickford Aided Slackers.

"Just listen to this a minute," he went on, picking up a marked copy of a Sunday newspaper and reading: "The official records of the United States navy show that Jack Pickford was discharged after a court martial in which he turned state's evidence in the exposure of the graft and bribery ring in the Third naval district. The records show that Pickford had acted as a go-between for rich slackers who sought bombproof berths in the naval reserve."

Plenty of Time to Wed.

"Now," continued Mr. Ziegfeld, "regardless of my feelings about Pickford, I believe Miss Miller should think twice before marrying any one just now."

"She is the highest paid musical comedy star in America, and probably will be so for years. She is very young and has plenty of time ahead of her for marriage and married life."

"So, after I had a little talk with her, Miss Miller returned to Boston, and I hope she will not act precipitately about a matter so important to her career and her future."

Insanity Cell Awaits as He Kills His Wife

An insane man for whom commitment papers to the Chicago state hospital for the insane at Dunning had been issued by Judge Frank S. Righeimer, yesterday afternoon shot and killed his wife, mother of seven children. This is the second murder in ten days committed by a man who should have been locked up where he could do no harm.

The woman killed last night was Mrs. Alice Kellihier, 937 East 43d place. The husband, William, escaped.

The other murder victim was Mrs. Elizabeth Williamson, 7330 Maryland avenue, slain May 19 by her nephew, Thomas Mahoney, a moron released as cured ten months ago from Dunning.

One More Chance Is Fatal.

Kellihier, a steamfitter, is being sought by police in the vicinity of his favorite haunts around State and 39th streets.

The papers calling for his commitment to Dunning were found by police when they searched the house.

Kellihier's wife was giving him the one more chance, which proved fatal, before having him sent away. She told Capt. McCauley of the Hyde Park police that the next time her husband came home intoxicated, she would call the station and have him taken away.

Work of a Maniac.

The tragic events of the murder were pieced together by police from the story of Ellen Kellihier, a 15 year old daughter, and the testimony of neighbors.

Ellen said her father came home from work early yesterday. He had been drinking. He lay down for a nap. Ellen went on an errand, leaving her mother and father alone in the house.

When she returned, the daughter found her mother lying at the bottom of the rear steps, dead. A trail of blood led from the kitchen to the back porch, showing Mrs. Kellihier had tried to escape after she was wounded.

Fires Into Body.

Mrs. E. A. Marks, a neighbor, told the police she heard several muffled shots fired in the kitchen of the Kellihier home. Looking over she saw Mrs. Kellihier run out on the rear porch and plunge down the stairs. The mad husband stopped at the top and fired at his wife's prostrate body.

He then walked back into the house. The empty gun was found lying on the bed. Kellihier walked out the front door, according to Charles Wilson, 4158 Ellis avenue, who saw him leave. Wilson said Kellihier acted as if nothing had happened, walking west on 43d street.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 29.—[Special.]—Dr. Frank C. Studley, prominent in local medical circles and superintendent and manager of Riverside sanitarium, was today made the defendant in a $20,000 damage suit by Mrs. Elsie Bolendahl, who holds the physician responsible for the loss of her husband's love as the result of Studley's attention to her while a patient at the sanitarium.

Mrs. Bolendahl admits to indiscretions with Dr. Studley, setting forth that only four days after she entered the hospital for a surgical operation Dr. Studley began to make love to her.

Ganna Walska's Big Gem Purchases Startle Paris

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
PARIS, May 29.—Russian émigré circles in Paris are wildly talking about the recent large purchases of Russian jewels by Mme. Ganna Walska, Czech soprano. It is reported that she has made purchases amounting to over 1,000,000 francs (roughly $100,000) from a small shop in the Rue Faubourg St. Honoré run by the Countess Chicherin.

In the statement issued by President Gompers, the veteran labor leader said, in part:

"The decision of the railroad labor board in the case of the maintenance of way employees is a most unjust and inequitable proceeding."

"The minority decision, which says the new wage will not allow the father of a family to purchase as much food as is allowed an inmate of the Cook county jail, leaves little to be said in characterization of the action of the majority."

"The railroad workers waited until July, 1920, for an increase in wages. During the four years preceding the change in living costs did not warrant the pay cut. The statement also commented upon the 'grace and good nature' with which the railroads accepted the recent order for a freight rate reduction."

Other union leaders, including Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, issued more wordy statements, but the substance was not much greater—excepting in the case of B. M. Jewell, president of the federation's railroad employees' department, who predicted that the maintenance of way men will refuse to accept the impending pay cut.

The grand council of the maintenance of way brotherhood was in session several hours yesterday in Detroit. It was said the most this body can do is to make recommendations. A strike can be authorized only if a referendum of the rank and file favored it, President Grable said.

Mr. Grable predicted that the council would recommend a strike vote.

DRAINAGE CANAL FIGHT TAKEN TO SUPREME COURT

Wisconsin Wants Illinois
Officials Summoned.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]
Washington, D. C., May 29.—(Special.)—The controversy between Illinois and Wisconsin over the diversion of water from Lake Michigan through the Chicago drainage canal will be fought out in the United States Supreme court.

William J. Morgan, attorney general of Wisconsin, appeared in the Supreme court today and filed a motion to have the question brought to trial. He asked the court to issue a writ of subpoena directing the governor and attorney general of Illinois to appear in court on a certain day and show cause why a subpoena should not be granted to prevent the diversion of water from Lake Michigan. The court is expected to rule favorably on the motion next Monday and fix a date for hearing the case in the fall.

Critics Action of Congress.
The Wisconsin authorities assert in their bill of complaint that the state of Illinois was never authorized by Congress to divert water from Lake Michigan. The diversion of the water is said to be caused by the war department, and constitutes a violation of the legal rights of the state of Wisconsin and the people of said state, according to the bill of complaint.

Allegation is made in the complaint that the diversion of water through the drainage canal has lowered the lake level not less than six inches and that it is causing "serious interference with the trade and commerce of the people of Wisconsin."

Seek an Injunction.
The state of Wisconsin therefore brings this action on behalf of itself and the people of said state, for the purpose of establishing and protecting the legal rights of said state and its people against the encroachments of the defendants and of terminating a condition which is inimical to the welfare and prosperity of the said state and its people, the bill of complaint states.

In the event that the court decides that the legal authority of the state of Illinois for the diversion of water is valid, the Wisconsin authorities ask that an injunction be issued to restrict the diversion to 4,157 cubic feet per second.

COVERED BY LANDIS ACTION
The Chicago sanitary district last night expressed the view that Wisconsin's appeal to the Supreme court seemed wholly unwarranted, inasmuch as former Judge Landis on June 29, 1920, granted an injunction which, it upheld by the United States Court of Appeals, and this seems certain—will, in reasonable time, prohibit the sanitary district from diverting more than 4,157 cubic feet of water a second. The amount now being diverted is about 1,100 cubic feet.

Under the federal court injunction the sanitary district was given a reasonable time to devise and complete ways and means of treating sewage water by dilution.

Opposing to this end, the state legislature last year authorized the building of numerous treatment plants. One of these, near Calumet, has been nearly completed at a cost approximating $7,000,000. Others are well under way.

There is pending in congress a bill contemplating provisions that would allow the objections made against the Chicago canal and would grant an injunction to prevent the diversion of water during rainy seasons, thus concentrating the present drain upon Lake Michigan by the Chicago sanitary district.

3 SALOON MEN HAVE GUN FIGHT;
ALL WOUNDED
A triangle shooting—minus the woman—was staged on the street in front of 3041 Cottage Grove avenue last night, resulting in the wounding of three men.

Dan Morrison, a saloonkeeper, who moved from Crawford and Madison to 3041 Cottage Grove avenue a year ago, had some trouble with Frank McGovern, a former saloonkeeper. McGovern entered Morrison's saloon and shot him in the arm.

Morrison seized a gun from behind the bar and shot McGovern, who ran to the street. Morrison followed. The two were shooting it out in the street when Morrison's bartender, whose name is Walters, joined the fray with a gun. Walters shot at McGovern, who then turned and wounded Walters. The three were taken to hospitals.

BOTTOMLEY GOES TO CELL; MAY LOSE
SEAT IN COMMONS

Gets 7 Year Term for War Bond Fraud.

BY HENRY WALES.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

LONDON, May 29.—Horatio Bottomley, member of parliament and publisher of the anti-American weekly John Bull, was found guilty in Old Bailey court today of the fraudulent conversion of £150,000 ($660,000) and was sentenced to seven years' imprisonment.

As a result he may also be expelled from the house of commons.

The jury deliberated for less than half an hour, reaching its decision on the first ballot. Mr. Bottomley announced that he would appeal, but he was denied bail and was removed immediately to Brixton prison.

After the arrest Mr. Bottomley organized victory premium bond clubs, selling certificates and promising high rates of interest.

Highly Convicted, Judge Says.
The defendant stood in the prisoners' dock while the judge summed up and enunciated the three points it was necessary to establish if he was found guilty. At 3 o'clock the jury returned the verdict guilty. Mr. Bottomley turned deathly pale as he heard the result.

"The defendant was rightly convicted by the jury for a long series of frauds," said the judge. "The poor people trusted him, but he robbed them of £150,000 in ten months. The crime was aggravated by the defendant's high position and the number and quality of his victims and his callous effrontery. I see no mitigation and sentence him to penal servitude for seven years."

Snails at Judge.
When Mr. Bottomley was about to be removed by the guards he asked if he could be freed on bail.

"The question of bail does not arise," replied the court.

"I could say something offensive about you and your summing up," shot back Mr. Bottomley as the guards hurried him out.

WOMAN WHO STOLE
FROM HER EMPLOYERS
GETS PRISON TERM

For the embezzlement of $9,600 from her employers, Miss Margaret McCarthy, 36, former bookkeeper with the law firm of Moses, Rosenthal, and Kennedy, was yesterday sentenced to the penitentiary for from one to ten years when she pleaded guilty before Judge George Kersten.

Her attorney, Thomas D. Nash, told the court that she took the money to pay hospital and physicians' bills for her invalid sister, Hamilton Moore, member of the firm from whom she embezzled the money, said he would recommend her release when she had completed one year of her sentence.

Miss McCarthy was arrested in 1920, but forfeited her bond in the Municipal court and disappeared. She was found a short time afterward and rearrested while working as a secretary for the firm of W. B. Conkey & Co. of Hammond, Ind.

There were five office jobs open to men where there was one for women ten years ago, he said, while today the situation is almost reversed. The woman who took the positions of men who went to war in 1917 did their work so well that their employers not only want to keep them but are seeking more of them.

The surplus of labor which formerly obtained for office positions has nearly disappeared, according to H. M. Ford, president of the board. Salaries have ceased to decline and there has been an even greater demand for stenographers and a corresponding increase in the salaries offered for that class of work.

"An employer prefers a girl without bobbed hair if he can get her," was the opinion of Smith, "but in these days that is not so easy."

"Employers are not vitally interested in the feminine employee from the standpoint of dress," according to Miss Grace B. Cooke of Boston.

TRAINED WOMEN
FOR OFFICE JOBS
HARD TO EMPLOY

Scarcity of Them, Is Expert's Report.

Employers today cannot find enough women to fill all the openings for them in "white collar" positions, according to H. B. Smith of San Francisco, a director of the National Employment bureau, which opened its convention here yesterday at the Hotel Sherman. The bureau operates in several cities and fills vacancies for educated persons in offices.

Meanwhile the disorders continue unabated in the Belfast area, three being shot and killed. In West Belfast during fighting this afternoon a special constable and a civilian were killed while several civilians were wounded. Another civilian was shot dead in an outbreak in East Belfast.

LONDON, May 29.—[By Tribune Wireless.]—British regulars may be sent to reinforce Ulster troops should they be forced to invade the Irish Free State to defeat and capture Sinn Féin troops if the frontier warfare continues, it was intimated in parliament today. It was also said the British will keep some troops in Dublin.

The deadlock between the Irish delegation and the British government over whether the Collins-De Valera agreement violates the Anglo-Irish peace treaty continues, although leading cabinet members conferred several hours with Prime Minister Lloyd George today. ## BOLSHEVIK WAVE PERILS IRELAND AS CHIEFS TALK

Seizure of Small Farms

[Copyright, 1922, By The Chicago Tribune.]

DUBLIN, May 29.—The action of the irregulars today in abandoning the Masonic hall and Lever Bros' soap factory here is interpreted as a forerunner of military unification. The Kildare Street club is the process in evacuation, and the Four Courts building, Gen. Rory O'Connor's headquarters, probably will be abandoned this week.

The band holding Orange hall is composed of refugees from Belfast, owing scant allegiance to Gen. O'Connor. Its evacuation, therefore, is problematical. Ceremony accompanied the evacuation of the Masonic hall. After the evacuation, the band and barbed wire were removed from the building and lowered the republican tricolor. The Masons declared the damage was slight.

Lawlessness in Country Grows.
Owing to delays in London, the Irish delegates at the British capital wired Dublin today postponing the session of the Dail Eireann until Friday when the results of the London conference will be discussed.

While the politicians are deliberating, lawlessness and misery exist in the west. Bill Larkin's followers have seized houses in Galway. In County Mayo where potatoes are raised on farms of inadequate size land grabbing has become the fashion. The small farmers grab not only the rich man's tract, but also small farms. What began as a revolt against the ancient land grants has become demoralized into brigandage.

In fertile County Tipperary the struggle continues between the so-called bolshevik creamery workers and the farmers. The situation in Colman County Tipperary, is a repetition of the Italian labor crisis. With capital fearing to invest and farmers hesitating to sow observers foresee famine over wide tracts.

Three More Die in Belfast.
BELFAST, May 29.—Loyalists are flying into County Fermanagh from the Donegal border towns, fearing violence by the republicans. The Sinn Féiners are arresting loyalists in retaliation for the capture of republicans in Ulster by special constables early last week.

In Pettigo, on the Fermanagh-Donaghadee border, the republicans are digging trenches in the streets and making other preparations for hostilities.

Meanwhile the disorders continue unabated in the Belfast area, three being shot and killed. In West Belfast during fighting this afternoon a special constable and a civilian were killed while several civilians were wounded. Another civilian was shot dead in an outbreak in East Belfast.

CHICAGO MAN BACK FROM FAR EAST AFTER FIVE YEARS' SERVICE

After five years in the far east in various diplomatic posts, Ray Atherton of Chicago returned home yesterday to find many familiar landmarks gone. He is at the Chicago club for a few days and is on his way to report at Washington for two years' work in the state department there.

Mrs. Atherton remains in Chicago for the summer, as they had taken a house on the southeast near Park before the call to Washington and she had made arrangements to have her father visit her. She was Constance Coolidge of Boston and is a noted beauty. During the recent fighting around Peking the windows of her home were broken by bullets. She went outside the gates one morning to look after some racing ponies and when she tried to return found the gates closed. She telephoned to the legation and United States marines came to her rescue.

Other circumstances corroborated Miss Walker's statement. Four o'clock p. m. found Miss Walker at home with the servants. Her father was not home nor could he be reached at his office. Her sculptor father was absent. Relatives, when interviewed at their homes, said they were making preparations to spend Memorial day in Lake Forest. The Rev. Norman Hutton, rector of St. Chrysostom's Episcopal church, who is reported to be the clergyman who is to officiate, was in Massachusetts.

He Waits in Line.
Sculptor obtained the marriage license in the morning. The mystic with the gifted chisel, the luxuriant hair, and the "different" philosophy turned toward the marriage bureau and took his place in the long line formed on the second floor of the county building.

In quite the conventional way he gave his name as Stanislaw Sukalski, his address as 423 Lafayette street, New York, and his birth date as Dec. 3, 1895. He tabulated his fiancée as Helen Louise Walker, daughter of Dr. Samuel J. Walker, 219 Lake Shore drive, born March 26, 1898.

With the conventional but peculiar license in the pocket of his artistic blue suit, the sculptor-suitor went to join his portrait-painter fiancée, whom he had left in a nearby corridor, waiting with other prospective brides, as wasn't there.

He Finds Her.
"But I'll find her," predicted the prospective bridegroom as he mingled with other prospective bridegrooms. He did.

Returning to her apartment shortly after noon, Miss Walker denied herself to everybody and repeated her early statement that the wedding plans were to be announced later in the week, possibly Friday.

Dr. Walker has leased his summer home at Lake Forest for this season to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cushing. But Miss Helen's brother, Samuel J. Jr., and his wife are summer residents of the suburb and it was indicated that Dr. Walker, Miss Walker, and Stanislaw were planning to spend Memorial day there and at the Onwenta club.

MADER AND "BIG TIM" TELL CAREY THEY WILL QUIT

The passing of Fred "Frenchy" Mader as president of the Chicago Building Trades council will be the chief order of business when that body holds its next meeting Friday night.

Mader and "Big Tim" Murphy, at a conference yesterday with their bondsmen, Thomas Carey, millionaire brick manufacturer, agreed to sever all connection, secret or otherwise, with the affairs of the building trades. This was the stipulation Carey made when he signed their bonds last week.

Following the conference, at which Emmett Flood, general organizer for the American Federation of Labor, was present, Carey issued a statement announcing he intends to call a meeting of "business men and representatives of labor and civic organizations" to sit down with him and "see who is really to blame for conditions in the building industry as it now is."

Murphy's Through, He Says.

Murphy announced he "would tell the world" he was through with the building trades forever. While he has held no office in the council it has been known that Mader was merely a figurehead and that Murphy was one of the dominating forces in control. Chief of Police Fitzmorris claimed Murphy at the time of his arrest was planning to succeed Mader as president. Mader also expressed a willingness to step down and out but Flood objected to his resignation under existing circumstances. He said he would rather see Mader in jail than to quit under fire. Mader said he was ready to quit but that he would rather wait and obtain views of the delegates to the council at Friday night's meeting. At that time he will offer his resignation. "If it is accepted—as it probably will be—his successor will be elected immediately."

Carey Explains His Position.

Mr. Carey stated nothing would have induced him to sign the bonds

MRS. BUHLIG NAMED PARENT-TEACHER HEAD FOR CHICAGO REGION

Mrs. W. H. Buhlig, 372 Normal parkway, was appointed regional director for the Chicago district at a meeting yesterday of the Illinois council of the Parent-Teacher association.

As director of the Chicago region, Mrs. Buhlig will have charge of the local parent-teacher organizations, which are in the majority of the city's grammar and high schools.

Mrs. Mark P. Mears of Chicago, Mrs. H. W. Buhlig is president of the (Morrison Photo.) Illinois council, which yesterday approved of Mrs. Buhlig's appointment. Mrs. Mears gave a report of the national conference of parent-teacher associations held last week at Tacoma, Wash., and which she attended as one of four delegates from Chicago.

of "Big Tim" or Mader if he thought either one had any connection "either directly or indirectly with the murder of the two policemen who were shot, or with the slugging of men going to or from their work."

He said he intended to communicate with Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, or his delegated representative and determine his attitude in the matter.

"This is not a matter of friendship," he said. "This is a matter that concerns the entire citizenship of Chicago. I want the press and the public to withhold judgment until such time as I am able to make further investigation."

YOUTHFUL GIRL HIKERS ARRESTED.

Florence O'Leary and Clara Simeran, 15 and 16 years of age, were taken into custody yesterday morning at 3:30 o'clock. They were on their way to New York, but could not tell how they were going to get there.

CATHOLIC BODY CALLS MURPHY BAD LABOR TYPE

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., May 29.—[Special.]—The department of social action of the National Catholic Welfare council issued a statement today relating to recent murders in Chicago and the arrest of union labor officials in connection therewith, particularly assailing "Big Tim" Murphy, although not mentioning him by name, as one who is "betraying the cause of all the working people."

"The great mistake made in certain Chicago trades," says the statement, "was in selecting men with criminal reputations for offices. One of them stands now under a prison sentence for a mail robbery and was out of the penitentiary at the time of the murders only because the case had been appealed. Yet he kept his office in the labor union. This particular official has had a varied career as a congressman's clerk, guard of the United States capitol, and state legislator."

Employers' Conviction Aids.

"While he is an official of the Gas Workers' union, many doubt if he ever worked at the trade. They declare that he is simply a grafter placed in office after an internal fight in his union, partly through the connivance of employers, who hoped that he would keep the gas workers from asking for continuously higher wages."

"His own union, the building trades, and the whole labor movement in Chicago and throughout the country will suffer because of him. Because his own union elected him to office and because other unions in Chicago tolerated such a man they are all to bear the brunt of his bad reputation. He and others similar to him are using the labor movement for their own private ends and are betraying the men who elected them and the cause of all the working people."

The welfare council defends labor union officials as a whole in Chicago and does not condone the wholesale arrests of union men in the building trades troubles.

Praises Unions as a Whole.

"A few of the Chicago unions," the statement continues, "had made the mistake of electing known criminals to high office. The result was that when policemen were murdered during a heated labor controversy these leaders could be suspected of being accomplices in the crime and in the heat of the controversy might be arrested. Their arrest would aid the employers' side of the question, and since this side in the Chicago dispute had been taken up by a general citizens' committee and had been accepted by most of the unions in the building trades they were seized at once and indicted."

"If a few of the Chicago officials are guilty of the charge they are exceptions among labor union officials."

S. STEEL FAR BEHIND EUROPE ON 8 HOUR SHIFT

Reluctant to Drop Its 12
Hour Day.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

America's iron and steel industry is struggling far in the rear of the rest of the world in cutting down the twelve hour day. The important steel producing nations of Europe are now on either three shift day or an eight hour day, or both—most of them went to the shorter working day right after the war. The fact tends to make the props from under one chief argument raised against the three shift day in America, that of additional production.

Producers have trotted out heretofore the idea that to cut the hours of the continuous process plants to a shorter basis, although fine from the humanitarian point of view and that citizenship, would take so much of dollars and cents on the cost of making steel that competition against foreign mills in the world's market would be knocked galley west.

Some Proportion for Both. The foreign producers, however, have experienced an increase in their costs due to the three shift system. Thus if the steel industry in America eliminated the twelve hour shift it would simply climb aboard on the same basis as outside nations, so as to be the factor of extra cost and its effect on competition for markets are minimized.

An inquiry recently made through the international labor office at Geneva, Switzerland, indicates that the three shift day has increased the number of steel and iron workers by 30 to 50 per cent. The steel trade in the United States has generally figured that to install three shifts in continuous process would entail employment of 150,000 to 175,000 more workers than under the long day.

President Harding in asking the elimination of the twelve hour shift, set out on an account of the volume of employment now is the easiest time to get in three shifts—advocates of the shorter day ever since the slump started have been urging upon the president that the period of scarce jobs offered annual opportunities to introduce the new system and to get it established before all industries climb into high gear.

Many Nations on New Basis. Belgium, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Germany, Great Britain, Italy, Yugoslavia, Poland, Rumania, Spain, Sweden and Switzerland all are now on a basis of eight hours or three shifts. In the international labor office report shows.

In Great Britain the three shift movement was started twenty-five years ago, ten years ago it was well advanced in the steel and plate mills of Wales and the blast furnaces in the north of England. Early in 1911 it was the accepted practice throughout the steel industry of England.

In Belgium employers and workers by agreement put in the three shift system at the beginning of 1920. In France a law early in 1919 established the principle of the eight hour day. Austria displaced the two shift system by the three shift by an act effective in January, 1919, on an appeal by the workers immediately after the war. Finland introduced the three shift system in 1918—it had an eight hour day law which went into effect in November, 1918.

The reports show in Germany three shifts have been the practice since the end of 1918 in all plants in which interrupted work is necessary. Italy has the three shift system in process of continuous character in 1919 and 1920, due chiefly to the activity of workers' organizations, while the three shift system was established in Yugoslavia in January, 1919, at the instance of workers' organizations and now required by law. Poland introduced the three shift system right after the armistice.

SENATE MAY BE GIVEN THE BONUS BILL TOMORROW

Democrats Plan to Offer Amendments.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., May 29.—[Special.]—The deadlock in the senate finance committee over the soldiers' bonus bill was broken today and prospects are that the measure will be favorably reported to the senate within the next few days, perhaps by Wednesday.

The measure was extricated from the committee impasse when Chairman McCumber [N. D.], called in the Democrats and enlisted their aid on the pro-bonus side of the controversy. They indicated their willingness to support the so-called McCumber bonus plan, similar to the house bill, in order to get the question before the senate, after which they will offer substitutes and amendments.

Democrats Like Neither. Neither the McCumber plan nor the Smoot plan for paid up insurance are satisfactory to the Democrats, it was stated today, but they regard the McCumber plan as less objectionable. Senator Simmons [N. C.], ranking Democratic member of the committee, gave notice he would offer amendments to the bill, after it is reported to the senate. He wants the bonus to be paid from the interest on foreign indebtedness.

The moment the bonus is reported to the senate the question of sidetracking the tariff will confront leaders. Senator McCumber believes that only a few days debate will be required to pass the bonus and he favors laying aside the tariff temporarily.

Fear Sleep Means Death. Other Republicans fear that if the tariff is once laid aside it will be difficult to revive it. Still others believe that the action of the finance committee in reporting the bonus and placing it on the calendar will expedite the tariff. They contend that the Democrats will be less eager to continue their tariff filibuster if the ex-servicemen know the bonus is next on the calendar.

PLAN NEW DRIVE TO PROBE LAXITY OF DAUGHTERY

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., May 29.—[Special.]—Blocked by administration leaders in several attempts to force an investigation of Attorney General Daugherty's laxity in punishing war grafters, Representative Johnson [S. D.] and Representative Woodruff [Mich.] planned a new move today to compel action.

They will attempt now to obtain authority from the house for the committee on expenditures in the war department to proceed with the proposed investigation. Under the provisions of the Johnson-Woodruff resolution, which was still resting securely in the pocket of Representative Campbell [Kas.], chairman of the rules committee, the investigation would be conducted by a select committee.

Gives Johnson His Chance. The new move, in addition to the fact that it gives Johnson and Woodruff another chance to bring the subject before the house, has this further advantage: Mr. Johnson is chairman of the committee on expenditures in the war department and could personally direct the investigation.

There was no let up in the attack of Mr. Daugherty in the senate today. Senator Caraway [Ark.] and Senator Watson [Ga.], Democrats, answered the statement issued Saturday concerning the Morse case.

The petition for the release of Charles W. Morse, containing 70,000 names, including those prominent in official life, was "thrown up as a buffer" by Mr. Daugherty, Senator Caraway charged. He declared that Mr. Daugherty, former Attorney General Wickersham, and Morse were all on record as saying that the petition had absolutely nothing to do with the commutation of the sentence.

Accused of Run Graft. Senator Watson took up the attack on Mr. Daugherty with another recitation of charges that the attorney general, at the instance of Thomas B. Felder, had blocked arrests for large whisky seizures.

Thomas was characterized by Watson as "a legal sewer rat" and a "gutter snipe." He suggested that Mr. Daugherty and Mr. Felder were "farming on shares," referring to the liquor cases.

UNCLE SAM NOW WORLD DWARF IN SIZE OF ARMIES

Figures Show Drop from War Basis.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., May 29.—[Special.]—The war department today submitted statistics which illustrate strikingly how the United States is leading the world in land disarmament.

This nation, which raised an army of 4,000,000 men for the world war, now stands in fourteenth place in point of actual numerical strength and in twenty-fifth place when the size of the army is compared to population.

According to the war department comparison, which is based on the present strength of the army and not the lower figures that will obtain when the new army bill becomes law, Russia has the largest army in the world, a force of 1,570,000 men. China is second with 1,082,000 and France is third with 818,000.

How Other Nations Rank.

The other armies included in the comparison are as follows: Abyssinia, 571,000; Greece, 310,000; Japan, 207,000; Poland, 230,000; Italy, 250,000; Great Britain, 237,500; India, 221,000; Spain, 216,000; Turkey, 185,500; Rumania, 165,000; and the United States, 138,000.

In view of the recent decision of the league of nations that nothing can be done at present toward general reduction of land armaments, these figures are regarded in official quarters here with interest.

Other statistics throw interesting light on the comparative burden borne by European populations and Americans for the upkeep of military organizations. In the United States there is approximately one soldier in every 900 persons, contrasted with the statement often made that every European adult "has to carry a soldier on his back."

Some Interesting Figures.

It is estimated that in the United States there is but one soldier for every $2,000,000 of wealth and one soldier for every twenty-five square miles of territory.

Army experts also emphasize the fact that practically all the European powers and Japan have compulsory military service, with guarantees that every able bodied youth will receive military training when he comes of age. Thus, they point out, despite the world cry for disarmament Europe and Japan are actually building up great army reserves, subject to mobilization upon short notice.

Army officers frankly admit their disappointment at the restrictions being placed upon military training here while other nations, despite the burdens of the late war, are ignoring disarmament appeals.

SOUTH WATER ST. PROPERTY TO GET $25,738,455 GAIN

BY OSCAR HEWITT

The Tribune has urged for years the commercial value of needed improvements. It has urged that there be real money value in relieving congestion, expediting travel, obtaining more light, air, and sunshine through more and wider streets.

This view was adopted yesterday by the board of local improvements in re-amping and improving South Water street. The board has figured out, is prepared to prove, and will prove, according to President Faherty, that this improvement will actually increase the value of property within the proposed assessed area. This district is between North avenue and Roosevelt road and the north and south branches of the river on the north and south sides, and on the west side Jackson boulevard on the south. Desplaines street on the west, and the south and north branches of the river on the east and north.

The South Water street improvement will increase the value of this property, according to the board's figures, as follows:

Area	Benefit
South Water st. property.....	$5,389,831.85
Other south side property.....	14,937,888.64
North side property.....	4,530,908.30
West side property.....	888,127.00
Total.....	$25,738,455.89

The South Water street improvement reached the second stage of its development yesterday. The board held a public hearing on everything except the cost of the land and buildings to be taken. The property to be acquired will cost between $10,000,000 and $11,000,000, according to the board's estimate. A court hearing on that phase of the subject will be started within sixty days, if the board can obtain a judge.

The construction portion of the improvement will cost an estimated $8,737,889 more, making a total of more than $19,000,000.

At the public hearing yesterday property owners asked many questions and a few objected. One man who said that he owned property on both sides of South Water street, asserted that his property would not be worth $10 a square foot when the improvement is completed. To this Faherty replied: "I will now take your property off your hands at $15 a foot and assume the assessments which this improvement will necessitate." Others made adverse comments, but when a vote was taken of the property owners for and against the improvement none voted against it.

Mortenson Wants Sub Teachers on Day Basis

Six-dollar-a-day pay for substitute and temporary certificate teachers, instead of the regular salary rate, will be recommended at the next meeting of the board of education by Supt. Peter A. Mortenson, he announced yesterday. He said such action would save the city $100,000 a year.

TAX PROPERTY ALONG SUBWAY, SCHWARTZ URGES

Ald. U. S. Schwartz, chairman of the council local transportation committee, yesterday declared himself in favor of special assessments on property especially benefited by a subway.

The Schwartz suggestion is in line with the plan of Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements, that a subway be built entirely out of funds raised by special assessments on property for a half mile on each side of a subway.

Ald. Schwartz predicted that the subway ordinance being drawn up by engineers for his committee will be before the council before it adjourns for the summer. It will provide for a subway to be built and owned by the city and according to present plans will not contemplate the use of any of the surface lines' sub-river tunnels.

PROHIBITION.

War prohibition took effect July 1, 1919. Although it was the ostensible purpose of constitutional prohibition to permit a year for the disposal of stocks on hand, war prohibition was not lifted, and it handed a theoretically dry country, very wet, over to constitutional prohibition and the Volstead act Jan. 16, 1920.

Therefore, the country has had virtually three years of the administration of prohibition by federal authority, and that experience is long enough to reveal some essential facts.

We have found that any cook can make beer, and there is no law which can keep the home brewer from obtaining the necessary materials. Any person can ferment grapes, dandelions, elder berries, and most fruits and many vegetables. Many did it before prohibition was dreamed of. Any person can make elder, and the elder naturally will ferment. Almost any person can distill liquor. The apparatus for it can be made or bought, although the government tries to suppress the sale of stills.

Almost any workman can make a still, and a great many do. Distilling, brewing, and fermenting at home are not the acts of the rich. In fact, home brewing is almost out of the power of the rich. They can't ask their servants to do it, and they can't be messing around in the kitchen and cellar. The servants wouldn't allow them to.

The thirsty rich and the well-to-do violate the law through the bootlegger and rum runner, unless they are well stocked up and have escaped the booze busters, which is an achievement requiring semi-military resources and fortifications. When the home producers distill hard liquor it generally poisons them. When the rich buy bootleg liquor they occasionally blind or kill themselves. The home distillation is of necessity a destroyer. It may madden and make murderous. It may work more slowly on the organs and the mind. It gets its victims somehow in the end.

If the government attempted to stop home production of alcohol in all the various forms in which it is produced, it would have to turn a quarter of the population loose on the remainder as spies, inspectors, police, and prosecutors. They would have to work from the farms to the slums, register every grape, stamp every apple, and ticket every dandelion and every elder berry bush.

The permitted use of alcohol for medicinal and sacramental purposes has been imposed upon and law breaking has entered there. These facts will be interpreted differently by different people. The prohibitionists say that suppression cannot be at once complete, but that the elimination is gradual. Other people say that constitutional regulation of personal habit is so violent and so abhorrent to liberty and conscience that people imposed upon will always revolt and ignore, violate or defy the law.

The Tribune believes that the writing of an inflexible summary prohibition into the constitution of the United States came out of a mistaken policy, and that the bad consequences were natural. The duty of the state to regulate a traffic so destructive as the traffic in alcohol may be conceded, but the right and power of the state to deprive citizens of the privilege of drinking any beverage which contains more than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol is another thing. The courts have upheld the right. The people have denied the power.

Three years' experience gives some laboratory results, and it is about time for the nation to consider them. Absolute prohibition cannot justify itself in contradiction of facts.

If the facts do not indicate the promotion of state well-being, a theory does not change them. We are leaving out all consideration of the value of the individual decision and conscience in a democracy. That great question enters the discussion at another angle.

We believe that the social purpose of prohibition has been defeated by the zeal of extremists. We believe that a more liberal construction of the enforcement law and of the definition of intoxicating liquor would stop or largely reduce the production of poisons by permitting the regulated production of lighter beverages, which are the most palatable and with temperate people the most used.

Temperate conduct and self-restraint are taught by education and experience and not by law. Intemperate people kill themselves by overeating, by permitting derangement of their systems because of laziness, by overindulgence in tobacco and in coffee and tea. The law cannot chase them out of every bad habit, but experience and education can, or if not, they pay the penalty of their habits and give over the land to a stronger breed which is fit to live.

The Tribune believes that at least a partial solution of the liquor lawlessness and liquor disease which are threatening the country would be found in an amendment of the Volstead act which permitted the production and sale, under regulation, of good beer and wine of light alcoholic content.

THE $1,000,000,000 LOAN.

Whatever we may think of the economic wisdom or error of the international bankers' prospective $1,000,000,000 loan to Germany, there is something to be said for it as indicating a tendency to solve the business problems of Europe by business methods rather than by political and diplomatic intrigue.

The idea of canceling European debts to America or of making new government loans to European countries with money obtained by force, which is to say by taxation, from American citizens has been thoroughly repudiated in this country. The idea of an American banking house, such as J. P. Morgan & Co., selling bonds for a bankers' loan to Germany or to any other European country is distinctly better than the idea of a government loan to be paid off when, and if, the borrower desires. At least with the bankers' loan we can provide the money by purchase of bonds or not as we desire. That is a matter for the individual American investor to decide for himself.

The government loan would mean additional financial entanglements with Europe in spite of ourselves. The bankers' loan would mean no such entanglements and no governmental responsibility in this country for collection. The nature of the security on which such a loan should be made should be a matter for the bankers to determine. If potential investors are satisfied and prefer to invest their money abroad through J. P. Morgan & Co. rather than to invest it in America, perhaps at lower interest, that is their affair.

Perhaps Mr. Morgan believes that by returning Germany to prosperity he will speed up all international trade and prosperity.

Whatever may be his reasons or motives he is on the way to making a loan based upon definite securities which he will insist upon being good before the money changes hands. Perhaps politics and diplomacy will enter into the task of defining these securities, but no Genoa or Hague meeting will alter their value when once defined. European politics and diplomacy are now attempting to fix distribution of the loan, but that is about as far as they will go. Altogether the bankers' conference appears to have been much more an economic conference than that recently held at Genoa. It is probable that it will limit the use of money loaned to constructive purposes, that it will limit the European habit of printing new currency whenever it needs marks or francs or rubles. The prospect is undoubtedly improved. It may mean the beginning of a new epoch and prove the most significant development since the armistice.

IT'S A GREAT CLIMATE.

The University of California took the intercollegiate games at Cambridge Saturday. It repeated the performance of the year before, when its athletes were the best point winners. Some of the virtues of our most celebrated, barring Florida, climate may be fictitious. It may not be able to change an earthquake into a fire. It does permit occasional political aberration. It gave us a people willing to divide our fleet for pork purposes while they were provoking war with Japan. It is not a cure for all eccentricity of the human mind, but it is great for snore. The Californians are true children of the Olympic games. Their climate invites them into the open and keeps them there when New Englanders are eating snow balls and when the midwesters are freezing and thawing. Corbett and Jeffries indicated what the climate could do for the ring. Dempsey started in operation in Utah, but that is a fringe of the same thing.

It makes great tennis players and it furnishes more than its share of good ball players. The California college boys play great football. The state has yet to prove that it is exceptional above the shoulder, but it certainly has a great below them. Australia, enjoying somewhat similar advantages, has wrecked its sister nations in the British commonwealth of nations in sports, has taught the English how to play cricket and tennis and football.

VOTE NEXT MONDAY.

A year ago the people of Cook county were much interested in a judicial election because the city hall had tried to complete its power by packing the judiciary. There is a judicial election next week, June 5, and it has not aroused the same interest. There is not the same open threat, but the citizenship had better show that it is still on guard.

Democrats and anti-tax Republicans again have agreed to the sound principle of renominating elected sitting judges. Judge Harry B. Miller, Republican, is not on the ticket, but he was not elected by the people. He was appointed by Gov. Small to fill a vacancy. The Republicans accepted the five Democratic sitting judges—Dever, Gridley, McDonald, Sabath, and Sullivan—for Miller, the name named Ald. Walter P. Steffen.

The Thompson-Lundin machine did not nominate candidates, but may try to use controlled votes to write names on the ticket. The Bar association has warned the public that apathy may endanger a good ticket and surrender places on the bench to a bit of city hall strategy. The voters can prevent this by voting for the coalition ticket which is opposed on the ballot only by the Socialists.

Editorial of the Day

LOGIC.

When Wayne R. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League of America, says the "whole bootleg, rum running, law defying army" is concentrating for an attack upon the constitution by means of a beer and wine amendment, he says what is not quite logical.

The bootlegger and rum runner are strong for prohibition. They thrive on it. The man who defies the law has little thought for what statutes and constitutions say; too little, certainly, to make any effort to spend any money to have either changed.

There is bound to be a new effort made to adjust the prohibition laws and the issue may well enough be one of law and order, as Mr. Wheeler says; but to the casual bystander who prefers not to take sides it will appear that Mr. Wheeler weakens his case by resorting to the old political dodge of maligning the opposition.

By calling the beer and light wine people "bootleggers, rum runners, and law defiers," Mr. Wheeler hopes to stir up popular sentiment against them. He might, too, were it not for the fact that unfortunately he applies to them the names of the people who are most happy to let prohibition continue.

Voters are often convinced by a politician who uses precious little logic, but they do demand a little more than Wheeler has given.

THE FLAGS.

We, the winds,
Go where red suns have set
And deep skies are—
Come, come!
We, the drum taps, bugle notes,
And tramp of feet,
Go with you, winds,
Over low hills and away—
Echoes of us, fainter, farther. . . .
We, the flags—
With our red of sunsets
And blue of deepest skies—
Would stay, would stay,
Where they lie, where they followed yonder,
Yesterday!

LES BARAQUES.

A lone gull winging over its wind swept haunts wheels with a raucous cry and disappears like a fleeting spirit into the flying scud the North sea winds are driving down the channel as the silent city among the dunes, the military cemetery of Les Baraques. The groaning of the caisson, the creaking of the bow and beneath the feet of the marching men impotent upon the silence of the spot, in a subdued monotonous undertone, a flat echo of that pomp of armies which fades to such unsung scenes on far off fields like this.

In serried ranks from hill to hill the crosses of Les Baraques stand out against the white sand like the massed banners of an encampment of the Crusades—crusaders who sleep until the Archangel's reveille shall muster them once more. Past the bivouac of Briton and Colonial, soldier and sailor, the procession moves in a slow march to where the newest cross marks the last billet of a Yankee lad. Rough hands grow tender lower him down, the escort presents arms smarter than ever on parade. The padre drones out his sonorous platitudes and then three whistles ring out loud and clear. The trumpeter raises his bugle to pursue the lips to sound the soldiers' requiem and from the gray encompassing hills the echo floats back—
"Comrade true,
Peace to you,
Farewell!"

WE ARE continually harassed in hunting for scandal in the daily newspapers to find our path suddenly blocked by column of dreary words from Washington of the discussion of the commissioners from Peru and Chile over Tacna. We propose that this matter be settled by the United States Senate. Oh, Bitterroot Bill, how I long to hear
Of the brilliant days and the nights so clear,
Of the plains by the Rockies, where drooping sun
Dyes gold and purple every day is done.
Each distant butte and low foothill
Touching all with the Master's skill.
I love to dream of the pitch black night
When the stars seem jewels of steady white,
And when the crackling fire we lie,
And watch the flames flare up and die.
On measureless range and rolling plains
Where altitude eternal reigns.

[Copyright 1922: By Dr. W. A. Evans.]

"SUCH A BRIGHT CHILD!"
Of course, Mother of Skies, your baby is brighter and bigger than your neighbor's baby. Too old to get into any controversies on those subjects.

Here's what Baldwin of Iowa university says to you on a phase of that question—sort of an aftermath—and it will be wise for you to listen to him:
"Because Skies is now the biggest and brightest baby in the neighborhood, does it follow that he will always be the biggest and brightest boy? You are interested in that, aren't you?"

Here's what Baldwin has found out by studying 2,800 children.
Some of these children were weighed and measured and studied mentally and specially for periods of several years. That thing of watching the same group of children closely for a considerable term of years is the nub of the Baldwin plan.

Here are some of his conclusions:
The rate of physical growth is not uniform. Some children start growing fast early in life, some later. As a rule those who start growing fast early stop growing early.
The rate of growth of the same child is not uniform at all ages. Boys are taller than girls at all ages except at the pre-pubescent. Since girls reach this age earlier than boys, there is a period of about two years in which girls are taller than boys. This is generally from 11½ to 13½ years.

Superior girls reach this stage earlier than average girls, and the same holds true of superior boys as compared with average boys.
A boy or girl who ranks tall at 6 will rank tall at 12. Likewise one who is short at 10-12 will rank short at 15-16.

Horse raisers say they can tell how tall a colt will be when grown by measuring the length of leg.
A careful student, carefully measuring a child for a year or two and taking into account the peculiarities of his growth and also the racial and family peculiarities of the stock, can guess reasonably well what the ultimate height of the child will be.
Girls stop growing at an earlier age than boys.
An apparently bright child may be accelerated mentally.

The brightest may be due to the fact that the child is mentally 2 years old, though chronologically only a year and a half.
While such children may keep ahead of average for a number of years because they keep accelerated, it is not certain they have now, or will have, superior mental ability.

The changes in type of processes which occur at certain epochs, such as school, pre-pubescent age, are quite likely to be accelerated also.
But not even this acceleration means ultimate mental ability.
To summarize, the conclusion is that a well grown, bright young child has some advantage over the average child, but it is a long way from having the world by the tail.

He is on his way. Care and training may help to keep him there.
But being on his way is not an end.

FICRIC ACID FOR BURNS.
D. M. B. writes: "Whenever I have burned any part of my hand, I have always been accustomed to keep the part immersed in very cold water until I could remove it from the water without feeling pain—perhaps twenty minutes or longer."
"Some time ago I upset a pan of boiling fat over nearly all my hand. Afraid to experiment with so large a burn, I tried the usual remedy—olive oil and soda—resulting in great pain and bad blisters over nearly all my hand.
"With the cold water method I never suffered any pain or had a blister. At the most, a slight callus."
"What could have happened had I tried that method with the larger burn?"

REPLY.
I expect this was a deeper, severer burn. Olive oil and soda is a fairly good application if the oil is sterile. A solution of picric acid is better. It deadens the sensitive nerve endings.
For simple, superficial burns a water bath is best.

PLEASE SEND SAMPLES!
T. B. writes: "What chance is one taking, counting from 40,000 to 50,000 fifty bills, mostly mutilated money, a day?"
"Some of the money has been laid away in vaults for years. When counted the odor is so offensive it makes one sick."
"Is filthy money a germ carrier? Can one get a disease?"

REPLY.
Lacquer may be filthy, but it is not dangerous.
Ordinary disease producing germs will not live and stay virulent long on money or other dry objects.
The New York City health department says health is purchasable.
Maybe this means money kills germs.

SUNLIGHT FOR RICKETS.
Mrs. C. M. writes: "I note you say cod liver oil is good for rickets. My 13 months old baby has them badly. Will you please tell me what size dose to give and how often?"

REPLY.
One-third of a teaspoon three times a day would be about the right dose.
Give your baby the sunlight treatment.
A baby with a bad case of rickets should be under a physician's direction.

FRUIT JUICES FOR BABY.
Mrs. M. S. writes: "My baby is 6 weeks old. When should I start giving the orange and other fruit juices?"

REPLY.
If the baby is at the breast you can safely wait until he is 4 months old.
If he is bottle fed you can begin now.

PAVING ADDISON STREET.
Chicago, May 28.—[Friend of the People.]—Do you know how soon Addison street will be paved west of Long avenue and also the streets crossing Addison?
A proceeding has just been originated for paving Addison street, between Long and N. Dearborn avenues. The property owners on this street are ready to hold the public hearing, but it is not likely that the street will be paved this year.
There is no proceeding for paving Austin avenue at this point.

WHAT DOES THE LEASE SAY?
Chicago, May 28.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—We rented a flat, paid a month's rent, and signed a lease for a year. The owner of building promised flat would be ready April 15. Rent was paid to read May 1st. It is a new building. We moved in May 1st and as yet the flat is not nearly completed. The address on lease also reads wrong number and number on lease is for a building occupied by a family. Can we break our lease for either of these two reasons? Also our rugs and furniture are getting ruined from painters, etc.

A. J. We cannot advise to advantage without knowing the wording of the lease and how far the property is from being ready for occupancy.

DEFINING A CHAUFFEUR.
Chicago, May 28.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—My husband owns and drives his truck, hauling for one firm only, by which he is hired by the year. Does he need to take out a chauffeur's license? He would be considered a chauffeur?

E. H. Yes. Section 28 of Chapter 354 of Cahill's statute defines a chauffeur as any person operating a motor vehicle as a mechanic or an employee and directly or indirectly receives pay or any compensation whatever for any work or services in connection with the operation of such vehicle.

Chicago, May 28.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—What can be done about a person who follows up an individual and hounds him out of employment everywhere he goes? This has been practiced incessantly for years, the one harmed never having given any cause for it.

E. F. It depends upon exactly what the person is "hounding" you does. Send another letter, giving more facts.

THOUGHTLESS TENANT.
Chicago, May 28.—[Friend of the People.]—Is there any way to prevent people obstructing an alley with all sort of rubbish like old barrels, bottles, ashes, broken fences, and shrubbery? The alley is impassable, especially in the 5800 block of Sheridan road. It has been in a disgraceful condition for a month or more.
The alley has been cleaned and the party responsible for this dumping has been notified to discontinue it.

QUESTIONS ON RIVERVIEW OUTINGS.
Chicago, May 27.—Some questions for Grace A. Reed and Mrs. J. Kaufman to answer.
1. Because the families of four boys who reached home from Riverview, "after midnight," were "not perturbed," ought intelligent persons in the community to think it of no consequence?
2. Does "keen enjoyment" necessarily mean "clean enjoyment"?
3. With forty Saturdays, Christmas, spring, and summer vacations, and various other holidays are our children in need of this one extra day?

4. Why can't our teachers suggest trips to our parks, Field museum, Christmas, and other places of real educational worth?
5. Why not base reasoning on facts? Because Grace Reed's children did not say they gambled, she has the right to infer that they did not.
6. Where does the Riverview carfare money come from? Mayor Thompson's pocket or the city treasury? If from the latter place, then the parents pay indirectly if not directly for the cost of these outings. If from a private source why paperize our children?

7. Aren't children ranging in ages from 9 to 15 old enough to save, or earn, carfare for an occasional trip to some place of amusement?
8. Is the 8 cents carfare (4 cents each way) the only money these children handle in the course of a year? Do they never go to the movies, never eat ice cream cones or candy, never chew gum?

9. Ought not our teachers to point the children to a self-respecting, "pay your own way" attitude on their part?

GAMBLING AND PICTURE SHOWS.
Chicago, May 27.—As a mother of three boys and one girl I think Mayor Thompson all right in trying to give the children a good time. I don't think poor mothers can give their children enough money to gamble away, but I do think that picture shows now are bad. The other evening I went and I sure was disgusted. While they were calling off the number they had to speak to the boys and girls several times, they were so noisy. And 10:30 all school children should be in bed, not seeing underworld pictures bad as gambling.

DEMORALIZING CHILDREN.
Springfield, Ill., May 25.—Your editorial, "Demoralizing the School Children," is indeed worthy of commendation.
Generally speaking, too often are the school children of today subjected to the vices of gambling and immorality due to contact with older irresponsibles. It is indeed unfortunate for the city of Chicago that her rising generation should be led into such a haven of depravity.
B. L. WETZEL.

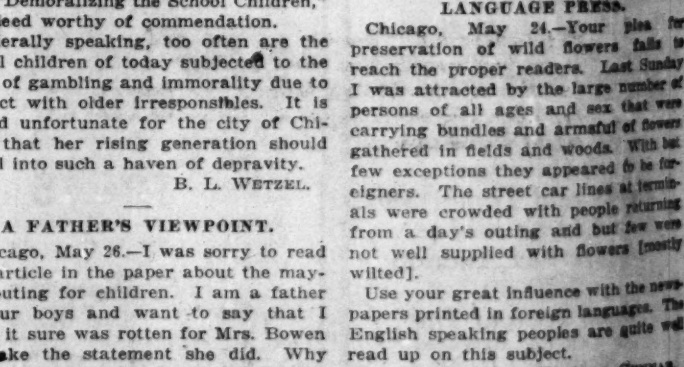

A FATHER'S VIEWPOINT.
Chicago, May 26.—I was sorry to read that article in the paper about the mayor's outing for children. I am a father of four boys and want to say that I think it sure was rotten for Mrs. Bowen to make the statement she did. Why don't they pass a law to let children

A JOB FOR THE FOREIGN LANGUAGE PRESS.
Chicago, May 24.—Your plea for preservation of wild flowers falls far short of the proper readers. Last Sunday I was attracted by the large number of persons of all ages and sex that were carrying bundles and armfuls of flowers gathered in fields and woods. With few exceptions they appeared to be foreigners. The street car lines at terminals were crowded with people returning from a day's outing and but few were well supplied with flowers (most were wilted).

Use your great influence with the newspapers printed in foreign languages. The English speaking people are quite well read up on this subject.

"The Duo-Art is without question greatly superior to any other of its kind and I shall be glad indeed to have my playing reproduced with such manifest fidelity."

The DUO-ART

Brings the Magic of Music to your Home

Percy Grainger says: "You who wish your children to become good musicians, let them hear Duo-Art records from their infancy. Let them imbibe perfect pianism as they acquire their mother tongue—by unconscious listening, by habitual repetition."

If you were to enter your living room one evening to find your piano softly playing—playing we will say the exquisite "Liebestraum," of Liszt. Saw the keys moving yet no one there. Heard the lovely melody sing out in smooth legato, heard the delicate runs, the rich chords all glowing with the art of a great master-pianist you would think it magic, wouldn't you?

So plays for you the Duo-Art—the music you love—the songs your Mother sang for you—the mighty master-pieces of the immortals.

Surely your children would think the fairies had touched the piano with their golden wands if it were to play, all by itself, rousing marches for their games, dainty tunes to set their toes a-dancing, little folks' songs to which they could sing; and at the day's end, dreamy lullabies to which the Sandman would steal in unnoticed!

The Duo-Art comes as a beautiful and beneficent influence in the life of a child.

What if the young people were to discover that by a touch of a lever on the piano they could step gaily off to the most delightful dance music they ever heard—that they could call upon the very best dance players at any time, and have anything they desired from a charming version of the old-fashioned "Virginia Reel" to a last-minute Fox-trot; full of vim, bringing out all the richness of the piano's tone and withal holding an entrancing new quality and rhythm? Wouldn't they think that one of Scheherazade's magicians had wrought the spell?

Duo-Art dance music sparkles with life and rhythmic cadence, yet is wholly refined and artistic.

YES, MAGIC IS IN THE DUO-ART

The Magic of modern musical science, conjured by Aeolian pioneers in the field of self-playing instruments.

The Magic of musical art—created by the greatest masters of all time—the entrancing beauties which have hitherto been heard only in concert halls.

The Magic of the greatest pianists—of Paderewski, of Hofmann, of Bauer, of Cortot—no reproducing piano can present such a mighty list of leading pianists exclusively recording their playing of to-day, as the Duo-Art.

The Duo-Art is the one perfect reproducing piano. It is the instrument which over fifty of the greatest piano masters of our day have chosen to reproduce and perpetuate their art.

Nor is the Duo-Art beyond those of very moderate means. The Stroud Foot-impelled Upright Model is but $750—a very little more than the price of a good player-piano. The Stroud Electric Upright Model is $1050. Duo-Arts are also obtainable in Steinway, Steck, Wheelock, Aeolian and famous Weber pianos—Grand and Upright.

Most Convenient Terms Arranged on All Styles

An allowance will be made on your present piano in exchange for a Duo-Art

RECORDING STUDIOS: NEW YORK and LONDON

College songs and the popular hits of the day are part of the Duo-Art's limitless repertoire. The words are always printed on song rolls.

Duo-Art Dance Music is different and far surpasses that of any other self-playing or reproducing instrument. Duo-Art Dance Rolls are played by the best dance players of the country. So broad is the scope of the Duo-Art recording apparatus that their rhythms and expression are reproduced with absolute perfection.

Is it some memory-laden melody of long ago—"Juanita" or "Silver Threads Among the Gold"—that you like best? They are played with tender feeling, by great artists for the Duo-Art.

Accompaniments to the world's famous songs are played by such great accompanists as Conrad v. Bos and Frank La Forge.

POINCARÉ MAY KEEP FRANCE OUT OF HAGUE PARLEY

PARIS, May 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—Premier Poincaré, it was stated in well informed quarters this evening, will recommend to the chamber of deputies that France abstain from participation in the conference at the Hague on Russian affairs unless it is well established in advance that the conference is to discuss economic subjects alone, and that the discussion will take place between experts, and distinguished from diplomats.

The term experts, as understood in this connection, excludes both diplomats and political leaders. It is known, for instance, that M. Poincaré does not regard Foreign Minister Richthofen of Russia as an expert.

May Get Free Hand.
Three eventualities are being considered by the French government: full participation if the economic character of the conference is assured, provisional participation from June 1 until it appears whether the conference will keep out of politics, with retirement before the arrival of the Russians if politics creep in, and, in this case, the sending of an envoy, such as the United States sent to Genoa.

It is expected that the chamber will give Premier Poincaré a free hand, with the assurance that parliament will support him if he finds that the arrangements for the Hague meeting do not give sufficient guarantees that it will not be a mere continuation of the Genoa conference.

Worried by Boundary Rows.
Official circles here have been much disturbed by talk in London and Rome to the effect that the question of fixing definitely the frontiers of eastern Europe between Russia and Poland, and between Russia and other states may be discussed at The Hague. The prospects of the Hague gathering

MONTREAL HOLDS MAN IN $4,000,000 BOOZE FORGERY

Montreal, Canada, May 29.—Harry Grossberg is under arrest here charged with forging a permit for the removal of $4,000,000 worth of liquor with intent to defraud the United States government. "It was alleged the permits were presented and honored at the storehouses of the Fleischmann Distillery company in Cleveland, O."

Grossberg pleaded not guilty. His alleged offense was put down as having been committed last December.

CHANG'S TROOPS MUTINY; JOIN PEKING VICTOR

HARBIN, Manchuria, May 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—The soldiers of

Gen. Chang Tso Lin along the Chinese Eastern railway have mutinied and declared in favor of Gen. Wu Pei Fu, who defeated Chang in the recent battles around Peking. Almost the entire railroad is in the hands of troops who have revolted against the Manchurian dictator and are supporting Gen. Wu, now in control in Chih-Li.

The mutiny is spreading among the civil employees.

PEKING, May 29.—Kaoen Hung, the new Chinese minister of communications, in an interview with THE TRIBUNE correspondent at the end of his first week in office, announced that he was discharging nearly 4,000 clerks, whose services were not necessary, from the Chinese railways. Furthermore, he said he was adopting a budget which will make a saving of $25,000,000 the first year and enable China to pay off millions in debts to American manufacturers.

CYANIDE PUT ON FREE LIST AFTER VOTE IN SENATE

Washington, D. C., May 29.—(Special.)—Republican senators were responsible today for the rejection of a finance committee amendment to the tariff bill imposing a duty of 10 per cent on cyanide. This commodity, which is used in refining gold and silver and for fumigating purposes in citrus fruit sections, was restored to the free list, where it was left in the bill as passed by the house.

The senate defeated the committee amendment by a vote of 46 to 14. Those voting against any duty included twenty-four Republicans and twenty-two Democrats. In favor of a duty were fourteen Republicans.

Senator Oddie (Nev.), Republican, led the fight to restore cyanide to the free list. He was aided by Senator Sterling (S. D.), Republican, and by Senator Pittman (Nev.), Democrat. Senator Frelinghuysen (N. J.), Republican, was active in advocacy of a duty.

Republican senators from the west were against a duty with but few exceptions. Some of the eastern Republicans joined with them, including Senator Lodge (Mass.), the Republican leader.

The Roessler & Hasselacher company has plants in New York and New Jersey. Senator Frelinghuysen denied a charge that the company had contributed to his campaign fund. He said his only interest was in seeing that proper protection is given an American industry.

A 25 per cent ad valorem duty on bricks was removed, and the rates on magnesite were raised from $6.25 a ton to $10, the house rate. Both actions represented further victories for the farm bloc.

"Approach thy grave like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams."—Bryant.

The master-poet, in these few beautiful words, kindles hope in a pleasant hereafter and removes the sting of death. Modern funeral direction has been developed in harmony with this thought—and the modern undertaking executive is trained to assume detailed responsibilities in a manner that will make each rite a lasting memorial to the memory of the one who has passed away.

Some day his services will be required in your own home. Just as a measure of precaution, make a mental note of the name and location of your neighborhood funeral director.

Commendation of Wesley West-of County Judge Frank S. Righelmer

Hotel Morrison of the Chicago Church federation. A letter of praise was or-of a report by Mrs. C. L. Holtzman.

head of the woman's department of the federation, in which she stated that conditions "unfit to be described be-viously had existed in the women's wards of the jail had been remedied.

Judge Righelmer was lauded by E. J.

judge had convicted in cases which had been passed up by other jurists.
The political action committee was or-

MAYOR ADMITS 5¢ FARE BAIT FOR SMALL BALLOTS

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

Mayor Thompson admits that he and Gov. Small promised the car riders a nickel fare if Mr. Small were elected. It was made a matter of court record yesterday. The promise of the governor and mayor was given in the autumn of 1929.

The admission of the promise was made in a separate answer of the city to the street car companies' application for an injunction against the 5-cent fare order as confiscatory. The answer is marked "Filed 5:34 o'clock p. m." yesterday in the federal district court clerk's office. This answer is said to relate to a plea for a permanent injunction. Judge Gleason, Judge and Evans are expected to decide within a few days whether a temporary injunction shall be issued.

Companies' Contentions Denied.

The answer makes specific denial of nearly all of the material contentions in each paragraph of the companies' application. One of these paragraphs says that the city "denies that both the present governor of the state of Illinois and the present mayor of the city of Chicago supported the candidacy of the governor by pledges to establish the ordinance rates of fare."

That is just a denial that the governor and mayor promised the nickel fare by the specific method of establishing the ordinance rates. Later, the governor said "by pledges to the voters that they and each of them would do all in their power under the law to establish the 5-cent fare."

It also says that the governor and mayor promised municipal ownership and operation and that the governor received a plurality of 132,000 votes and that the governor and mayor think it is incumbent upon them to keep their promises.

The answer asserts that the operating expenses of the companies "are excessive" and "are in utter disregard of the public interest since the war." The city contends that the surface lines "are deliberately and purposefully managed extravagantly and inefficiently" to keep up the rate of fare. The city contends that the companies could vastly reduce expenses by the exercise of reasonable and proper economy.

Skims Over Wage Cut.

This answer slides gently over a reduction in wages for the street car employees, although it does not oppose the argument heretofore made by the city for a wage cut.

On the other hand, the city does emphasize its contention that the valuation of the surface lines is excessive. The answer claims that $100,000,000 of the $160,000,000 in the capital account does not represent property.

The city asks the federal court to dismiss the proceeding and to force the companies to submit their issues to the Circuit court of Cook county in the hearing of the city's suit to annul the franchise of the companies. This was filed in 1919. The answer does not explain how this can be done so that a layman can understand the process.

SIGHT RESTORED TO BEGGAR AFTER THIRTY YEARS

"Old Bill" Rabe, who has earned his living and paid his rent by holding out a battered tin cup to passers-by at the entrance of the Chicago Commons, at the Illinois Charitable Eye and Ear Infirmary yesterday, preparatory to placing the ancient cup on the shelf forever.

Bill's Escape a la Adam Causes Wife to Get Decree

The story of how her husband, William E. McConnell, a member of the Board of Trade, escaped through the rear door of a young woman's apartment with his clothing under his arm, while the police were entering at the front, was told in Judge George F. Rush's court yesterday by his wife, Mrs. Genevieve McConnell. She told of following him to an apartment at 215 West 54th street, occupied by Miss Minnie Wesse. The raid followed, Mrs. McConnell was granted a decree of separate maintenance.

Charge purchases made Wednesday will not be billed until July 1.

The 71 year old beggar will take up the tailoring business where he left off thirty years ago, when he lost his eyesight. In a week, Dr. E. K. Finley, of the infirmary, will remove the bandages and give "Old Bill" a look at the "Old Eye." The operation performed last Thursday, the surgeon said, proved successful.

"Been paying $4 a month rent," said the veteran mendicant, "I haven't lived there in that smelly old basement long enough. And I haven't forgotten what I know of the tailoring business, all these years, either."

"Old Bill" told the tale of his three sightless decades.

"Time was," he said, "when I was pretty well to do. I owned an apartment building near Chicago avenue and Noble street. I lost that, along with my eyes and everything else."

"My lady and I—eight of them and smart as whips—I lost, too. Nothing was left but Mary and my old tin cup."

He declared he owed his "new lease on life" to a social welfare worker whose name he didn't know, who interested herself in him.

"Give her the credit," he insisted. "If it wasn't for her I wouldn't ever be seeing the stars and flowers again."

SHIPPERS TRACE GOODS BY RADIO, IS LATEST PLAN

BY CHARLES SLOAN.

Losses to shippers aggregating more than $100,000,000 annually through theft and careless handling of goods in transit are expected to be reduced materially through installation of thirty-five radio transmitting stations in as many cities throughout the country.

Army Boards May Retire Officers, Is Highest Ruling

Washington, D. C., May 29.—Deciding a matter which has been disputed in army circles since the world war, the Supreme court held today that it is not necessary for the President to review and approve, personally, each individual case to make effective the work of the retirement board in removing officers of the army from the active list under the national defense act.

The court stated that those in the military service are subject to the military law and due process of law does not entitle them to trial in the civil courts, provided the military tribunals act within their scope of authority.

POPE CHEERED AS CATHOLIC WORLD CONGRESS ENDS

ROME, May 29.—[By the Associated Press.]—The eucharistic congress closed today with a Te Deum sung by the massed choir of the Vatican in the presence of Pope Pius, the cardinals present in Rome, a throng of prelates, and 60,000 pilgrims.

When Pope Pius entered St. Peter's an emotional wave seemed to sweep over the vast throng. The pontiff appeared profoundly moved as he lifted his hand to impart the blessing and cries of "Long live the pope," "Viva Pius," echoed through the cathedral.

The One Trip in a Thousand—for This Summer

BY AN EASTERNER

MEN, women, children—all need a change in summer time from the year's routine of business, home and school.

It is profitable in dollars and in health. Good business men and doctors all agree.

Decide to go and go now. But have a complete change, for in the greatest change is greatest value.

I was so advised by a physician years ago, and the question naturally arose, "Where to?"

A Surprising Answer

A friend of mine suggested Southern California, which caused me great surprise.

I thought it a warm place to go in summer. But he convinced me otherwise and so I went.

I spent July, August and September there and slept under blankets ninety nights. I never knew a finer summer climate. Balmy days, ideal for any sport, and refreshing sleep were invariably the rule.

But more than that, I enjoyed the absolute diversion due to totally different environment and "atmosphere," that really renews people who are fatigued.

This same experience is near you, too—only a few hours away. For two weeks or two months—it's worth your while.

A World Within a Province

Southern California is a summer wonderland of opportunity for fun or rest.

Here are great seashore resorts with fine hotels or modest cottages.

Four thousand miles of paved automobile highways marked by 70,000 official guide-signs to direct you to myriad points of interest, including a one-hundred-and-one-mile drive called "Rim of the World" with stupendous views on either side.

The world's most famous ocean fishing grounds, where champion anglers come each year from every section of the globe. Also mountain trout streams.

Mountain climbing, with scenic grandeur that Switzerland would boast, or visit a peak by trolley. Ocean islands and mountain lakes like Italy's.

Great cities, old Spanish missions and primal wildernesses within a stone's throw.

A desert (next door to rich orange groves) larger than all, save Sahara, with strange mirage effects. In fact, a thousand unusual attractions to absorb you in their interest. And all these delights and curiosities within a circle with a radius of a few hours. Travel as you will by motor, train or trolley.

Don't say you can't leave business. Take the family and go! You'll never regret it, for this is one trip in a thousand. Make it now!

Starts on the Train

The railroad trip itself is memorable—through the canyons, mountains and great plains. Every inch is teeming with our early history. This great vacation starts when you step on the train.

Go now. The thing to do is, go now—go this summer. Men, women, children—all need a change like this. Decide now. You can arrange it as you will.

Special low-rate, round trip fares now in effect—No more War Tax.

Ask any railroad ticket agent for further information, or mail coupon below.

You'll say it's the best trip of your life.

City and Suburban Circulation of Chicago Newspapers

The graph above shows the city and suburban circulation of Chicago newspapers in relation to the number of families in the territory. The Chicago Sunday Tribune, which leads in total circulation, leads also in city and suburban circulation. The graph is based on publishers' statements to the Audit Bureau of Circulations for the six months' period ending March 31, 1922.

499,725 Daily :: 827,028 Sunday
Six Months' Average

NO NEWSPAPER, we believe, has a more comprehensive analysis of its circulation than The Chicago Tribune. It has no circulation secrets. The manufacturer who advertises and the dealer who sells may have exact circulation figures in the following classifications:

By districts in the 48 districts into which the city of Chicago is divided.

By states in Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin.

By counties in each of the five states.

By counties in zones 40, 100, 200 and 300 miles from Chicago.

By towns within a radius of 40 miles of Chicago.

By cities in the five states.

By towns and villages in the five states.

The Chicago Sunday Tribune has greater circulation in Chicago and suburbs than any other newspaper

The Tribune is more than a local newspaper. It goes to one out of every five families in the five states comprising The Chicago Territory. It is a great sectional medium.

And yet it has a greater circulation in Chicago and suburbs than any other newspaper. The city and suburban circulation of The Chicago Sunday Tribune during April was 481,516. The average city and suburban circulation of The Tribune daily during April was 360,378.

The character of the circulation may be inferred from the fact that during 1921 The Tribune carried more department store copy from the ten big State street stores advertising merchandise above the basement than any other Chicago newspaper. (Advertising Record Company's analysis of department store advertising for 1921 sent on request.) The Tribune's total for all advertising was far ahead of any other paper.

"Fair Lady" Is No Comedy, Though Its Title Belies It

By Mae Thine.

Despite its Peach Melba title, "Fair Lady" is a human picture, full of action, thrills, suspense, and magnificent acting.

The film is adapted from Rex Beach's story, "The Net," and is a tale of the Italian love, hate, and intrigue. The scenes are laid in Italy and on the ocean and the plot is said to be founded on actual occurrences in criminal history that took place many years ago. As that as it may, "Fair Lady" is a strong and colorful drama shot through with brilliant moments of rare histrionic achievement.

If you don't believe me, watch the work of Macey Harlam as Count Modena, a slim and fiery Italian, determined that his people in this country shall wipe out the stain upon them caused by the machinations of the evil gang who work mysteriously under the guidance of a mysterious "Cardi."

Also cast an eye upon Gladys Hulette, a spoiled and headstrong daughter of the south, beloved of Modena, who is wildly jealous of her. As a curried, candy-eating, man-killing bit of stuff she is delightful. Funny little things!

Then—Betty Blythe. Exquisite. Wonderful to look at and a finished actress. The entire cast stands up well and carries the story through to a triumphant finish.

"Fair Lady" is the kind of picture one mustn't tell all about beforehand. Though its title should have been left "The Net," of one thing you may be sure—it will hold your interest from start to finish.

Strawberry Strups.

The easy elegance and convenience of the strups is all too little appreciated in the home, although so constantly received in the sodas sipped and the sandwiches consumed. There is a really greater advantage than the one who is not familiar with their manufacture in this easy elegance of the pretty strups—easy because quickly made, and because with their help many another thing is quickly put together, and pretty in both the making and what is made. And the economy of them is something worth while. A small paper container of ice cream may be stretched and enhanced 100 per cent by serving a nice strup over it.

To make a strup most quickly use hot water, which dissolves the sugar at once and saves stirring and that washing up the sides of the saucepan which may ultimately make for crystallization of the sirup if it stands and little of the water. Many a recipe which calls for considerable water with the sugar, and long simmering—so that the water may cook out—may be adopted for quick work by halving the amount of water called for, as in the following:

Four over one cup of sugar one-fourth cup of boiling water or over two cups of sugar one-half cup of boiling water, and note that it is all dissolved, then do not stir, but test by lifting some in the spoon until two drops instead of one seem inclined to drop from the spoon, or cook to about 220 on the thermometer. Cool at once, and when it is cold add to each cup of it one well packed down cup of strawberries. Serve over junket, ice cream, or simple tapoca pudding.

Or one-half cup of strawberries cooked in the sirup when it is thick makes a fine sweetening and flavor for drinks and punches and does not have to be used on the dry made, as the other does.

Douglas MacLean has completed his contract with Thomas H. Ince. He is vacationing now in Boulder, Cal.

George Fawcett has been added to the cast of "The Homestead," shortly to be put out by Famous Players. We sit up and take notice!

Finding Who's Who.

Recently I attended a convention in an eastern city. The evening of the convention closed, we were entertained at a dance. As I was standing near an open door to cool off, two local men came up to talk to me. Suddenly, I realized I had that dance engaged and said, "Jove, I nearly forgot I had this dance engaged! I've got to leave. I made one mistake to-night, forgetting a dance, but the woman weighed over two hundred pounds, so I didn't weep about it, believe me!"

"Yes," calmly remarked one of the men. "My wife mentioned you had out a dance with her."

Adding Insult to Injury.

A neighbor of mine was indignant because the man living next to her painted his barn the same color as her house.

She came to me and said, "See what color Mr. Jones painted his barn?" Not having seen it, I did not grasp the reason for her anger, but wishing to seem agreeable I answered, "Some people have no taste at all when it comes to painting."

MEN'S FASHIONS.

A Flexible Straw Cap.

By A. T. GALLICO.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—If you are one of the many men who like to wear a cap on the golf sun, here is the cap that will appeal to you. It is manufactured from fine straw, a woven product made in Madagascar of fine grass. Being extremely pliable, the straw is practically indestructible, and the property of shedding water makes it showerproof. As there is no stiffening used, the cap is porous and thus delightfully cool, but although it is so light, it does not blow off, because of the leather band. The pliability makes it possible to roll the cap up and put it into one's pocket without cracking.

Answers to Queries.

R. F. A.: If you don't want to be "horribly incorrect" you will have to wear the silk hat. Your belief that it is the correct hat for the occasion is well founded. If it were an informal wedding the case would be different, but the only possibility for a formal wedding is the silk hat.

Waltham League Elects.

Laporte, Ind., May 29.—W. W. Meier of Evansville was elected president of the Indiana district of Waltham league at closing session of the twenty-sixth annual meeting here today. Other officers elected were: Vice president, Adolph Vogel, Terre Haute; treasurer, Louis Brand, Indianapolis; secretary, Miss Clara Schumm, Laporte.

The Yoke Effect Sought in Many New Wraps

by Crissie Low.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—At one of the recent races held in the vicinity of New York a prominent society woman appeared in a black velvet cape which, irregular of length, almost swept the ground in its most active moments. Not only did it achieve prominence because of its excessive length, all forgettings were leveled at the collar—a simple turn-down affair made of ermine which was edged with the back velvet.

This collar only goes to prove how deep in the range of collar possibilities of the new coats and capes. Among these may be mentioned the padded collar which adorns many smart capes and which looks much like a halter. Another is the use of beaded self folds. And one of the most frequent manifestations of collar wisdom is the ruche formed by roses of self fabric seen today on so many crepe and taffeta capes.

On both the coat and the cape, yoke effects are a smart detail. Indeed, the yoke collar is located on some of the most beguiling of the new frocks. Here we find it worked out on a stunning coat of black tulle. The result is obtained by silver braid repeated in panel effect on the skirt.

Sunday fashion page will be found in the New Color Section.

HARDING, TAFT
PRAISE LINCOLN
AT HIS SH

Gratitude of N
Is Expressed

Washington, D. C., May 29.—Today American love and appreciation gave him Lincoln this lone white Pantheon for him alone. With these words President G. Harding today accepted of the American people's Lincoln memorial, erected government at a cost of $2,000,000, located on the Potomac river at the extreme end of the Mall in Potomac Park. Looking toward the capitol dome and the Washington monument which was reflected in the water, the president accepted the memorial which was dedicated to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. The memorial was dedicated to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. The memorial was dedicated to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. The memorial was dedicated to the memory of Abraham Lincoln.

Characterizing Lincoln as "the greatest of our presidents," President Harding today accepted the memorial which was dedicated to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. The memorial was dedicated to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. The memorial was dedicated to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. The memorial was dedicated to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. The memorial was dedicated to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. The memorial was dedicated to the memory of Abraham Lincoln.

Was Natural Human "Abraham Lincoln," said Harding, "was no superman. He was a great Washington, whose shaft towers nearby as a tribute to the memorial we dedicated to the memory of the greatest of our presidents. Americans to founder and Washington, Lincoln was a human being, with the virtues of a human being. There are neither supermen nor gods in the government of our country. It is for our conception of him that we have erected this memorial. It is for our conception of him that we have erected this memorial. It is for our conception of him that we have erected this memorial.

Chief Justice Taft, in a memorial for which "people have waited, traced the history of the great man from the beginning to two sons of Illinois. Part in its accomplishment United States Senator Stephen A. Douglas and Representative Abraham Lincoln, who is about to Congress. "In 1811," said the prefacing a description of the memorial, "two sons of Illinois and Joseph G. Cannon, the bill for the creation of the memorial. Under the commission this work has been done. It is for our conception of him that we have erected this memorial. It is for our conception of him that we have erected this memorial. It is for our conception of him that we have erected this memorial.
